Weekly Devotional: How

Can I Use My Talents to Serve Christ?

By Lauren Abraham

Posted on July 15, 2016 in [Spiritual Life]

“Each of you should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God’s grace in its various forms.” (1 Peter 4:10)

God has given us each a set of unique talents and abilities. These talents make up who we are, and they are what make us different from one another.

So, why did God give us our talents?

Oftentimes, we think of our talents in terms of how they can serve us. For example, they can help us to do well in school, have a successful career and raise a family. However, it is important to change our perspective and realize that God gave us our talents to honor Him.

As Christians, we each play a unique role in the body of Christ. Together, we can fulfill our purpose here on Earth, which is to serve God and tell the world of His goodness. If we deny the talents we have each been given, it will be hard to complete this mission.

An example of a spiritual talent is leadership. If God has blessed you with this talent, you may be called to motivate others in the completion of goals that will ultimately serve Christ. By taking on a leadership position in an organization, planting a church or becoming a pastor, you can use your gift to honor Christ.

On the other hand, your spiritual talent may be service. By helping to complete tasks that benefit others, no matter how small they may seem, you can reflect Christ and glorify Him in your actions.

1 Corinthians 4:2 says, “Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful.” If God has given you a gift, He wants you to embrace it and use it to further His kingdom. If we carry out what we have been called to do, He will bless us abundantly.

I encourage you to make it a goal to use your talents to serve Christ in your daily life. If you do not know what your spiritual talents are, ask God to reveal them to you. Ultimately, the body of Christ can do powerful things when we each use the talents we have been blessed with.

FROM THE PEW:

How Are You Going To Win If You Are Not Right Within?

Without Spiritual Growth You Won't Have Numerical Growth In The Church!

Skool Days:

All of us at some point in our life attended school some quit, some graduated and others went on to even higher learning, but while in school we learned things some more than others that taught us things about people, places and things. Some learned things that were taught to us that were wrong or needed more expounding on what was being taught. Some were so into learning that there was never enough learning for them, but the one thing all of them had was they attended school with all the required equipment, such as their books, pencils/pens, paper, etc. The ones who settled for the first thing they were taught could be classified as the person who just "ACCEPTS" what someone tells them. The ones that go on to higher learning do not "ACCEPT" what was first being told to them. Now we have the ones who quit which means they go through life with just what they see and maybe what family or friends tell them. These are the people who spread false info to other people.

CHURCH PEOPLE:

Not everyone attended church services, some went with you, and some dropped you off or maybe they did attend with you. Some believed in what the preacher spoke from the pulpit or the older people in the congregation told them. They go through their life thinking all is good and Gods' word has been preached and taught correctly. Some had their Bibles with them, but was it for show, or what? My point is that in both of these examples each had the proper tools in order to learn and both need a pen to take notes to learn and not accept what someone tells them. As you walk into the sanctuary for praising God do you have your Bible and more importantly is your Bible open and ready to learn and search the scriptures to see if what is being preached/taught is God' true word. (Acts 17:11).

When we buy a large item like a house or car, we do our research on the fine print. Why don't we do the same when it comes to our SOUL? We cannot rely on what someone tells us no matter how long we have known them or like them when it comes to making it into heaven.

In the lesson last Lord's Day something was said that might be considered profound, but if not, it is worth repeating:

"Motivation Is An Inside Job And To Kill The Fear Of Something Is To Act On It."
