The World Has Gone Completely Crazy

The world has gone completely crazy. If you don't think so, just switch on the news for a second or two. Whether it's someone who decides they don't like their doctor's prescription so they're going to shoot him and anyone else who stands in their way; someone who decides to tauntingly murder a classroom full of innocent schoolchildren; some dictator who decides to invade and level a foreign country simply for no other reason than his own personal ego; or someone who wants to remove guns from the hands of law-abiding citizens, while at the same time, seeking to make sure through law, that abortionists are able to both legally hang onto and unleash their deadly weapons of mass destruction daily (which have, by the way, taken the lives of more than 63 million innocent pre-born people over the past five decades), the world has, as I said, gone absolutely nuts.

But this is precisely what happens when you deny God's existence and remove His wisdom from the masses (Psa. 2). This is also exactly what the Apostle Paul described by divine inspiration to the first-century church of Christ (Ro. 16:16) that worked and worshipped together in Rome, saying of such: "Their throat is an open tomb; with their tongues they have practiced deceit"; "The poison of asps is under their lips"; "Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness." "Their feet are swift to shed blood; Destruction and misery are in their ways; And the way of peace they have not known" (Romans 3:13-17).

If that doesn't describe what's going on in the news today, I don't know what does.

Paul also said it would get worse and worse as people would become more and more "lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, [and] lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God" (2 Tim 3:1-4). No question about that!

It is against this backdrop, in such a world gone mad – with so many satanically-intoxicated by their own self-serving and sinfully exaggerated sense of self-importance – that I am so very grateful, to be a blood-bought, fully forgiven, and hope-filled New Testament Christian.

One who can experience peace every day, despite whatever is going on around them (Isa. 26:3; Jn. 14:27, 16:33; Rom. 5:1-11, 8:6; Phil. 4:4-9).

One who is part of a world-wide family that – totally unlike the world around them – is devoted to unconditionally loving, serving, accepting, and working together with one another, no matter what; and even directly in spite of our many different backgrounds, perspectives, talents, and opinions at times (Ro. 12:3-21, 14:1-19, 15:5-7; Gal. 3:26-29, 5:13-6:2; Eph. 4:1-6, 29-32).

It is learning, loving, living, and exhibiting this type of Christian love, unity, family, and acceptance – so distinct and opposite from the world around us – that sets us apart; both from the terrifying madness, as well as the eternal destination, of those engulfed in and swept away by such evils and atrocities. Now; aren't you glad to be a Christian? You Should.

FROM THE PEW

HOW ARE YOU GOING TO WIN IF YOU ARE NOT RIGHT WITHIN?

We Should Worship God for Who He Is & We Should Praise God for What He does for Us

SING: (verb) To produce musical tones by means of the voice; to utter words in musical tones with musical inflections and modulations; to deliver songs as a trained or professional singer.

The Bible never said let those who can sing, sing as if it were a Spiritual gift. The Bible never said let those who have a beautiful voice sing as if natural talent is a prerequisite to praise GOD. The word "SING" appears in the Bible over 400 times and at least 50 of them are commands.

In each of these three references Psalms 96:1-2, Psalms 149:1-2, & Colossians 3:16 it speaks of singing and praising. God didn't say stomp your feet, clap your hands, etc. HE said sing and make a joyful noise unto the Lord; come before HIS presence with singing (Psalms 100:1-4).

If we truly know who our audience is then we will open our mouths and sing with the spirit and not wonder who is listening or how we sound. If you are not sure of a song then practice it. Take a song book home, go on YOUTUBE, ask someone to help you. When we sing we need to understand the words we are singing. When we hear a song on the car radio, we are quick to sing along no matter how we sound, we practice the song, "hum" it all day, sometimes it sticks in our head all day, but we can't give GOD that respect? How many of us know the words of the songs we sing in church services every Lord's Day, and they are songs we sing all the time, but yet we sit there with our mouths closed looking like statues while the song leader is leading us in singing. What part of the service did you miss out on?

In Ephesians 5:19 Paul gives a direct command to the church (people) speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord...

To all the men who lead us in singing I thank you. And to all the ones who want to lead singing and but have a fear of singing in front of people, think about when you are sitting in the pew, who is watching you from above, beside you, in front of you and behind you.

WHAT MUST I DO TO BE SAVED ?

Both Jesus and the apostles (guided by the Holy Spirit) taught that to be saved, it is necessary that one:

Hear	Romans 10:13-17	John 6:45 Revelation 1:3
Believe	John 2:30-31	Hebrews 11:6 Acts 16:31
Repent	Luke 13:3-5	Acts 2:38 Acts 17:30-31
Confess	Matthew 10:32-33	Romans 10:9-10
Be Baptized	Mark 16:15-16	1 Peter 3:21 Acts 2:38 Acts 22:16
Live Godly	Titus 2:11-14	Romans 12:1-2 2 Peter 1:5-11

LESSON OUTLINE

HOW TO TREAT ONE ANOTHER

Romans 14:9; Ephesians 4:32; 1 Peter 4:9

INTRODUCTION... The New Testament uses the phrase, "one another" about 34 times. Within our lives, and especially in the church, how we treat "one another" is of special significance. The Lord expected unity within His church, and anything less diminishes it. Considering that Jesus gave up His life for the church, we must never let this happen, and it all starts with how we treat one another.

I. WE ARE TO EDIFY ONE ANOTHER

- (1) Romans 14:19; Ephesians 4:29; Colossians 3:16
- (2) Acts 20:32; 1 Timothy 2:1

II. WE ARE TO BE KIND TO ONE ANOTHER

- (1) Ephesians 4:32; Galatians 5:22; 1 Corinthians 13:4

III. WE ARE TO BE HOSPITABLE TOWARD EACH OTHER

- (1) 1 Peter 4:9

IV. WE ARE TO PREFER ONE ANOTHER

- (1) Romans 12:10; Philippians 2:3; 3 John 9

V. WE ARE TO FORGIVE ONE ANOTHER

- (1) Ephesians 4:32; Mark 11:26; Colossians 3:13

VI. WE ARE TO LOVE ONE ANOTHER

- (1) John 13:34-35; 1 John 4:11

CONCLUSION... As brothers and sisters in the Lord, it is clear that we are together trying to achieve the same goal. With that, we are to encourage one another toward love and good deeds. When we don't, the Lord is displeased because we are to be unified under the same banner. The words of the song, "He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother," might be appropriate here, as we strive for unity in the Lord.
