FROM THE BACK PEW!

*How Are You Going To Win... If You Are Not Right Within!
Without Spiritual Growth... Numerical Growth Won't Happen!*

FOUR THINGS WE SHOULD NOT DO

1. Worry.

Worrying is worship to the devil. God says we shall cast our worries onto him and be anxious for nothing. So give it to God and let him take the weight of your worries (Matthew 6:34)

2. Speaking Word Curses Over Your Life.

Life and death are in the power of your tongue. What you speak you become, so stop speaking negatively about yourself. Instead start speaking God's word over your life so you can start to see yourself the way he does. (Matthew 12:36)

3. Allowing Your Fears To Control You.

The devil is a liar. God does not give you a spirit of fear. The enemy places fear and doubts in your mind to prevent you from becoming who God has called you to be. Remember God walks before you and he always will so why should you be afraid? (2 Timothy 1:7)

4. People Pleasing.

Stop making decisions based on what other people think about you. When you're walking with God you may not be liked because you make decisions opposite of what people think is right so focus on pleasing God. (Galatians 1:10)

Do You Have Room to Grow?

God's word speaks to the heart of sincere readers and says, "You can grow." Whether that message surfaces in biblical narratives implicitly or in New Testament epistles explicitly, this divine instruction has power (Jas. 1:21).

The Scriptures preach repentance for hard-hearted sinners in and out of the church, but we should notice that it also encourages growth for tender-hearted Christians. No matter who we are, how we have served, or the length of our Christian life, we can grow. God's word can make good people better.

Be Doers, Not Hearers Only

Consider how the Epistle of James addresses the spiritual needs of the church. James challenges us to view our trials as growth opportunities-something that isn't easy to do (1:2-4). Thankfully, we can grow in wisdom with God's help {vv. 5-8}.

These trials of faith produce endurance and help us become or remain "perfect and complete, lacking in nothing" (v. 4). Yes, we can grow!

James stresses the importance of maintaining a spiritual perspective even as circumstances come with unique challenges-like poverty or wealth (vv. 9-11). If there's a need, we can realign our spiritual outlook. James reminds us that if we are leaning toward blaming God for temptation, we need to grow! The irrefutable, bedrock truth is this: God is untemptable, and he never tempts anyone {vv. 13-15}. Spiritual growth always requires that we take full responsibility for our sins.

James does not, however, encourage Christians to just mentally agree with these points. He stresses that we need to be doers of the word and not hearers only. He depicts this truth with an illustration that serves as a spiritual reality check

'If someone considers himself religious and at the same time he does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart- this persons religion is worthless (1:26; my translation).

Faith And Works

In chapter 2, the scene changes but the appeal does not. James continues to exhort us to live our our faith, being doers and not merely hearers. Therefore, there is no way to hold to the faith of our glorious Lord Jesus Christ while showing favoritism. We should show everyone respect and compassion and reject worldly standards and habits.

Christianity, James exhorts, has to be more than pronouncements and good intentions. What good is mere talk? None! What doth it profit?" is the question about that kind of faith (2:14, 16). James concludes:

For just as the body is dead without the spirit, so also faith without works is dead.

In chapters 1 and 2, James invites us to evaluate ourselves in several ways. There's always some area in which we need to grow. Perhaps we value trials in a spiritual sense, but we are less active and involved in God's community than we need to be. Maybe we'd never blame God for temptations, but we might have an unbridled mouth. Whatever the issue, James appeals:

(1) look into the mirror of God's word, and (2) whatever is out of place, fix it.

Horses, Ships, And Fires

Christians strive for spiritual growth as they heed the Lord's teaching and rely on his patience. To this end, James encourages us to "receive with humility the implanted word which is able to save your souls" (1:21).

The goal is not to become better than others. That was the mindset of the Pharisee whose self-congratulating prayer went unheard (Lk. 18:9-14). Christians should strive for growth that makes them look more like Jesus (Eph.4:16). Even when progress is made, there's always more room for growth when Jesus is the standard.

James identifies speech as a human activity that challenges most people. Controlled speech, therefore, is a true sign of spiritual maturity (3:2). At the same time, unbridled speech says a lot about a person's shallow spirituality.

To encourage growth, James discusses the importance of speech, the power of speech, the difficulty of controlling speech, and the sad reality of uncontrolled speech in the life of a Christian (ch. 3).

James admonishes: "From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters-it can't be like this!" (v. 10). Just like a rider controls a horse with a bit, a pilot steers a ship with a rudder, and a forest fire stares from a spark, so "little things" like our words can set a life on fire (vv. 5-6).

He That Hath Ears

Spiritual maturity comes from listening to and applying divine instruction (Mt. 11:15; 13:9, 43). James shares this wisdom with us in a proverb-like statement. He says we need to be "swift to hear," meaning poised and ready to listen so we may be controlled in our speech and reactions (1:19-21). Listening leads to learning, and learning to positive change in the heart. Deeper spirituality results in a more disciplined life and is reflected in our speech.

Solomon wrote, "Let the wise hear and increase in learning" (Prov. 1:5).

David Hubbard writes: "No amount of graciousness, patience, or artistry in our teaching will work without deliberate concentration on the part of the hearers" (281).

Do You Have Room To Grow?

Open your Bible regularly (Psa. 1:2) and listen with a humble heart (Jas. 1:21). God gives grace to the humble (4:6).

WHAT'S OUR SPIRITUAL CONDITION?

(III John)

Gaius:

He was “Spiritually Healthy”
because of a love
for the truth.
(vss 1-4)

Diotrephes:

He was “Spiritually Sick”
because of a love for having the preeminence.
(vss 9,10)

Demetrius:

He had a “Spiritual Reputation”
because of a love
for doing good.
(vss 11,12)

“EXAMINE YOURSELF, WHETHER YE BE IN THE FAITH...”

(II Corinthians 13:5)

SERMON OUTLINE

THE PERSISTENCE OF PRAYER

Luke 11:5-8

Introduction... In Our Study Of Prayer, We Have Surveyed Several Important Principles. We Must Pray: (A) In Faith, (B) Humbly, (C) In Harmony With God's Will, (D) With Thanksgiving, (E) In The Name Of Jesus. The Principle Of Prayer We Will Look At Today Is Persistence. This Principle Was Very Important To Jesus.

I. The Teachings Of Persistent Prayer

- (A) The parable of the persistent friend (Luke 11:5-8)
  - (1) Luke 11:1-4
  - (2) Luke 11:9-10
- (B) The parable of the persistent widow (Luke 18:1-7)
  - (1) Luke 18:8
- (C) The teachings of Paul (Romans 12:12)
  - (1) Ephesians 6:18; Colossians 4:2
  - (2) 1 Thessalonians 5:17

II. Some Examples Of Persistent Prayer

- (A) Jesus in the garden of Gethsemane (Matthew 26:36-47)
  - (1) Luke 22:41-44
  - (2) Hebrews 5:7
- (B) Paul and the thorn in his flesh (2 Corinthians 10:30-33; 12:7, 10)
  - (1) 2 Corinthians 12:9-10
- (C) The prayers of early Christians (Acts 2:42)
  - (1) Acts 12:5, 12
  - (2) Colossians 4:12
  - (3) 1 Timothy 5:5
  - (4) Luke 2:36-37

Conclusion... With such examples of persistence in prayer, we see that the the importance of persistence of prayer cannot be overemphasized. Though persistence does not ensure that God answers all that we desire, it is the key to getting the answers we need, those being: (a) Grace and Mercy to help in the time of need, (b) Strength to endure whatever it is we must face. "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find: knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened." (Matthew 7:7-8).
